

Nature Hero Awards (NHAs) 2024

Terms & Conditions - Grand Prize

Eligibility

The competition is open to all preschools, primary schools and secondary schools within the Republic of Ireland registered with the NHAs.

How to enter

Schools must officially register with the NHAs in order for their application to be accepted and the application process to be complete in full.

Submission guidelines

In order for schools to be considered for the top prize they must excel with their application form and evidence log.

Judging criteria

Schools will be assessed in how they have completed the actions as outlined in the NHAs application form and that this work is backed-up with evidence. The best performing school will be the winner. Judges decisions are final.

Prize

The grand prize of the NHAs is a garden makeover to the value of €10,000 provided by the schools local/ preferred supplier. Full details of the garden makeover requirements must form part of the application. This prize is generously sponsored by the NHA partners Glenveagh Homes. The prize fund must be spent during the current calendar year. A final plan must be submitted by the school in order for funds to be released.

Publicity

Acceptance of the prize constitutes permission to use the relevant winners' names, and likeness for purposes of advertising, promotion or publicity in any media (including social media) without additional compensation and prize winners agree to take part in such related promotional activities as may be required. By entering the competition, the school is providing consent for video footage/photography of the schools biodiversity areas. Provision of parental consent for photos/ images of staff and children is the sole responsibility of the school.

Notification

The winning school will be notified by phone call and email.

Data Protection

Personal information collected during the NHAs will be used solely for the purpose of administering the project and will not be shared with third parties without consent. Personal data collected in conjunction with the NHAs will be deleted upon completion of the project.

Acceptance of Terms

By entering the NHAs participants agree to abide by these terms and conditions.
